

On the Hebrew calendar, Tu B'Shvat ("the 15th of the month of Shvat") is the New Year of the Trees. The Kabbalists took this minor agricultural holiday and gave it new significance by inventing for it a ritual celebration, modeled on the Passover Seder and invoking such powerful imagery as the seasons of the year.

February 4, 2007
3:00–4:30 pm

(Yes, you'll be home in time for the Super Bowl kickoff.)

Our Tu B'Shvat seder has become one of the year's favorite events at the Tremont Street Shul. Come eat fruit, drink wine, and experience the renewing of life in the year! All those who can help set up are encouraged to come at 2:00pm.

The Seder is a 20s&30s-sponsored event, but all are welcome to attend. We will also be welcoming a special contingent of chevre from Boston Alumot (alumni of the Livnot U'Lehibanot program).

Cost is $12 per person ($9 with advance RSVP), payable in cash at the door.
Dues-paid TBS members receive an additional $3 discount!

RSVP to Erica (erica@alumni.brandeis.edu) before Shabbat on Friday, February 2, 2007.
